

India is considered a rising economic power, gaining space on the strategic expansion agenda of companies. With extensive experience in the Asian market, our team has extensive know-how in transactions with Indian clients, accumulating a long history of negotiations and consulting for investors who want to expand their presence in Brazil. We also provide advice to Brazilian companies that intend to expand the frontiers of their business to include the region, mainly in the areas of:

- Technology
- Energy
- Mining
- Infrastructure
- Agribusiness
- Automobiles
- Aviation

Highlights of our practice

Our partners understand well the cultural richness of what is one of the largest countries in the region and help to solve the challenges of local legislation, enhancing businesses that involve the most different areas of law, such as corporate, M&A, capital markets, intellectual property, real estate, and environmental.
