TRANSFORMATION IS POSSIBLE

Having a responsible operation from an environmental, social, and governance (ESG) point of view is no longer a business differentiator but an essential aspect of the business. To maintain the trust of investors and other stakeholders, companies need to clearly demonstrate implementation of practices aimed at social welfare, environmental protection, and integrity in conducting business.

Our ESG and Impact Investments practice area provides integrated legal advice on all issues related to corporate sustainability and the planet. With a multidisciplinary team of partners and associates, we have solid experience in legal issues related to the environment, sustainable finance, impact investing, people management, governance, risk, and compliance.
