

OIL AND GAS

TRANSFORMATION IS POSSIBLE

Regulatory instability, unstable prices, and deterioration of macroeconomic conditions create uncertainty and challenges for the oil & gas industry. In such a competitive and high-risk segment, legal advice that understands the complexities of business and can offer quick and efficient solutions is essential.

We advise domestic and international companies in the entire oil & gas supply chain, operating in the country or interested in entering the Brazilian market. We offer complete solutions that enable businesses in the areas of exploration and production, refining, transportation, storage, distribution, import and export of oil & natural gas.

We also provide assistance to financial institutions and investors in project financing, as well as large enterprises and service providers operating in this sector.

Our professionals also assist in the implementation of gas projects integrated with the energy market. We have teams specializing in these industries, working together to enable thermoelectric generation initiatives.

We provide a broad range of services, including:

- Advice on all types of transactions such as M&A (including farm-in/farm-out and corporate transactions) and debt transactions
- Legal due diligence in the context of such transactions

- Drafting, negotiation, and review of standard industry contracts such as JOA, GSA, transport and sales agreements, EPC contracts, etc.
- Regulatory consulting and representation of companies before the Brazilian Agency of Petroleum (ANP)
- Project financing consulting
- Crisis Management
- Environmental licensing and litigation
- Tax advice focused on matters related to this industry, such as issues relating to special customs regimes (including Repetro), consulting on the typical operations and support in structuring domestic or cross-border projects
- Advice on labor and social security aspects, including on issues related to expatriates
- Assistance in disputes and arbitrations
- Advise on competition and antitrust issues
- Legal and administrative litigation
