

SUPPLEMENTARY HEALTH

TRANSFORMATION IS POSSIBLE

Practicing in a highly regulated sector, with rules that change quickly, poses a series of legal challenges that can impact on the market and companies' business strategy.

Our highly specialized advice on the complex topics that this industry involves allows us to offer dedicated work, customized and sized for the needs of each client.

We have a deep understanding of the problems facing the sector, and our practice before the higher courts always keeps us up to date on the theories fixed that impact on the supplementary health business. With this, we can offer tailor-made solutions for highly strategic issues that can help the company manage risk securely and take better advantage of new business opportunities.

OUR SERVICES:

- We support insurers and health plan operators in structuring innovative products.
- We structure partnerships with technology startups, healthtechs.
- We develop complex contracts with health care providers, such as hospitals.

- We issue opinions on complex issues, such as the cost of corporate health plans or public entities, as well as assistance plans administered by private supplementary pension entities.
- We structure health plans for companies in the modality of self-management.
- We advise on compliance with the standards of the ANS (National Health Agency).
- We provide corporate advice on mergers and acquisitions and portfolio transfers.
- We support clients with strategic litigation in actions of great repercussion for operators, including repetitive appeals and with general repercussion in the scope of the Superior Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court.
- We advise on the preparation of consent orders and serve in the strategic administrative defense of operators and insurers before the ANS.
